

Foundation Subjects

These subjects are the ones which bring breadth and enrichment to your education. You should ensure that you choose the subjects which you are good at and that you enjoy.

If you have a particular career area you are interested in, then you should make sure that you choose subjects necessary to access these courses later in your educational life.

