

A Level Business

Exam Board: www.eduqas.co.uk

Preparing Students for the World of Work

These specifications are designed to:

enable candidates to gain an understanding of the world of business from a range of perspectives.

There are 10 main areas of content for A Level:

Structure of the Course

In the first year of the course, students will learn about the following:

Enterprise, Business Plans, Markets, Market Research, Business Structure, Business Location, Business finance, Business Revenue & Costs, Marketing, Finance, People in Organisations & Operations Management.

Assessment for A Level is all at the end of the second year of study.

All content will be examined in each of the 3 papers which include different forms of assessment.

Component 1

Business Opportunities & Functions

Written Paper: 2 hours & 15 minutes 33% of total A Level marks. Section A - compulsory short-answer questions AND Section B - compulsory data-response question.

Component 2

Business Analysis & Strategy

Written Paper: 2 hours & 15 minutes 33% of total A Level marks. Compulsory data response & structured questions.

Component 3

Business in a Changing World

Written Paper: 2 hours & 15 minutes 33% of total A Level marks. Section A - compulsory questions based on a case study AND Section B - one synoptic essay from a choice of 3. To assess all the A Level subject content.

Progression

Progression onto A Level Business will require at least 5 GCSEs, or equivalent, at grade 4 or above, including Maths and English.

Please talk to the Head of Department if you are interested in this subject.

