

8th February 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

Non-uniform Day: Friday 17th February

At Swanshurst we live our values every day and, as many of you know, one of our values is kindness.

To show our support for those affected in Turkey and Syria from the devastating earthquake that struck in the early hours of Monday, we will be holding a non-uniform day on Friday 17th February. Pupils are permitted to wear their own clothes instead of their usual school uniform for a minimum £1 donation or more should they wish to.

In supporting with this non-uniform day, our donations will once again support the British Red Cross.

The British Red Cross has launched the Turkey-Syria Earthquake Appeal to support the work of the Red Cross Red Crescent emergency responders who are meeting people's immediate needs in the aftermath of the earthquakes.

Should pupils not wish to wear their own clothes they can attend in full school uniform on the day as normal. These pupils will still be able to contribute. All donations will be collected during morning form time by form tutors and we will also be holding a cake sale during break and lunchtime to further increase donations.

If you wish to contribute further to the cause, we have set up payment methods on scopay to avoid your child bringing in large amounts of money to school - <https://www.scopay.com/login>

If you have any further queries related to the day, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
